

Paul HughesCreator & Co-Host, *The Great Green Home Show

Paul Hughes is the creator and co-host of "The Great Green Home Show" heard on Clear Channel Radio WILM 1450 AM. Additionally, Paul currently serves as sales manager for CMI Solar and president of Bean Stream Technologies. He is widely sought after as a lecturer and educator on energy efficient homes, green jobs, socially responsible investment, and energy saving technologies. As founder of Green Fox Energy Group, Paul formed an alliance of skilled green professionals who are pooling their skills to deliver green services to consumers, acquire rebates and tax credits for clients, and educate and train others for the new green economy. He has partnered with Clear Channel for the past two years to present the "Great Green Expo" event in Wilmington with Ed Begley, Jr., serving as host.

Paul has been widely recognized for his work, having received the Henry B. Folsom Award for Research and the Mayor's Youth Service Award. Paul earned a masters of public administration degree from the University of Delaware where he now serves as a member of the adjunct faculty. In his spare time, Paul can often be found at home writing comedy for his radio show and playing with his dogs, cats and one fish.
